WAR ON WOMEN

Latest Development in Caldwell County Riders.

First Blood in Tobacco War Shed by a Brave Woman.

Mrs. Robert Hollowell, wife of a farmer in Caldwell county, was shot in the face by armed men who surrounded the house during Wednesday night, because she testified against the men who burned the tobacco stemmeries at Princeton. She and her husband were warned that they must leave the county, and that she had "talked too much." It is the first blood which has been shed in the tobacco war. Mrs. Hollowell, against the advice of her husband, left the family room for the front door, and on reaching the hall was shot in the face with small bird shot.

According to Mrs. Hollowell's statements, one of the members of the mob in the yard gave a signal and the firing ceased. She was told, however, that they intended killing her if she did not quit talking so much and leave the country.

The men were not masked.

MORNING BLAZE

Prompt Reply of Department Saved Home of Geo. W. Lander.

About 9 o'clock yesterday morning a fire alarm was turned in from the residence of Mr. George W. Lander on North Liberty street, near First.

The department beat its record for promptness. The wildcat whistle had hardly ceased blowing before the firemen were half way to the fire.

Fire had broken out on the roof of the L of Mr. Lander's residence and was making pretty fair headway when the department reached the scene, where hundreds of people had gathered in a few moments. The hose was turned on the blaze and it was soon extinguished. The shingles caught from sparks of the chimneys. The building was insured. Loss about $10.

BACK FROM EUROPE

Col. Kelly Has a Fund of New Jokes.

Albert Kelly, who went to Europe in January, got home Wednesday. Mrs. Kelly and two of the children were in Switzerland when Mr. Kelly started to America. Miss Emily Bobb was not well enough to travel and Mrs. Kelly remained with her. They will return to Hopkinsville in two or three weeks.

Mr. Kelly had many funny experiences while he was gone and he has a fund of new jokes to tell his friends which he is dealing out in his inimitable manner.

ATHENÆUM'S 4TH BANQUET

A Distinct Success In Both Dinner and Oratory.

EXCELLENT SPEECHES.

Covers Were Laid For Seventy and Festivities Continued Till Late Hour.

Never has the Athenæum held a more delightful meeting than the fourth annual banquet at Hotel Latham Thursday night. The guests assembled in the parlors of the hotel and were escorted to the dining room at 9:15, where covers were laid for 70. There were two long tables. Mayor Meacham, the president, presided at one, and Senator Frank Rives, secretary, at the other.

Capt. Whitlow furnished the following delightful menu:

Salted peanuts. Sliced tomatoes. Bouillon in Tasse. Mixed pickles. Radishes. Fillets of Blue fish—a la Bordelaise. Pomme Parisienne. Gingenbre Sorbet. Smothered Chicken—a la Persillade. New Potatoes. Delmonte Tips. Plum Pudding. Hard Sauce. Fruit Salad. Neapolitaine Ice Cream. Strawberries. Assorted Cakes. Coffee.

The dishes were cleared away at 11 o'clock and for two hours there was a season of oratory, reason and eloquence. Mayor Meacham was toastmaster, and introduced the following speakers of the evening:

Eld. H. D. Smith talked most entertainingly of "Family Affairs," his subject being the great and numerous Smith Family.

Mr. J. T. Hanbery's subject was "In Our Town" and he eloquently eulogized Hopkinsville, setting forth our "strong points" gracefully and wittily, closing with a beautiful tribute to the ladies of the city.

Mr. T. G. Underwood was the humorist of the evening, and his speech on "When a Man Marries" was in his best vein of sparkling wit and brightness.

Mr. Ira L. Smith discoursed learnedly and in a thoroughly pleasing manner of "Poles and Persimmons." His speech abounded in good things.

Mr. J. W. Downer took his hearers into "Fancy's Realm" and entertained them with a speech of rare and eloquent word painting. Mr. Downer was at his best.

The last speech of the evening was by Prof. H. Clay Smith on the subject "Before Adam," which gave him an opportunity to display his qualities of exceptional grace, eloquence and humor as an after dinner speaker.

Those present were:
